Benjamin Clementine - Cornerstone

Big ass album, too. 75 minutes long.

I sent my brother the Reflektor song, and he absolutely loved it, and was listening to it constantly. He was an Arcade Fire fan anyway, but he really liked their new song.

I'm surprised how much I'm digging it. When I first heard it I was like "Wut", because it was all disco, but I'm actually quite enjoying that song. Mostly because I knew some of the singles really well from the radio.

They're like a mainstream band who seems to be willing to change their styles around and evolve more so then a lot of people I know on the mainstream music scene (Lady Gaga and Katy Perry. I actually think Katy Perry's new single is worse then she was the last album)

Arcade Fire-We Exist

If you are talking about Roar, I actually like that single. Don't care for Katy Perry though.

I couldn't listen through the whole song before turning it off...

E.T. with Kanye West was probably my favorite Katy Perry song, but still wasn't like, digging it.

I think this turned into the Listening To Arcade Fire Thread.

Arcade Fire-Wake Up

Clicked on this one because I was trying to remember why the song name seemed so familiar....YES, I forgot this song was Arcade Fire! I haven't heard this song in a while.

I know it really well from the Where The Wild Things Are trailer. I listened to a part of that song over and over again a lot because I quite liked it.
