Godspeed You! Black Emperor - Mladic

One of my favorite songs ever.

MGMT-Weekend Wars

Edit: While talking about one of my favorite songs ever, I post I'm listening to one of my least favorite MGMT songs....

Yeah, it's a great album as a whole, I prefer We Drift Like Worried Fire though. I'm in a very GY!BE mood.

Godspeed You! Black Emperor - The Dead Flag Blues

This is probably my favourite GY!BE song.

MGMT-Of Moons, Birds, and Monsters

One of my favorite MGMT songs, though in general I find their second album to be better. It sounds more musically interesting and like they got more talented with it. Of course, it was not nearly as popular as their first album, but to me, it was the better album.

Still going to check out their 3rd album when it comes out in June.

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there

Dying Fetus - Obsolete Deterrence

CVT Temp wrote:
I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
