Monkey 3703 was in Monkey Co. East while they were rebuilding Monkey Co. He got hit by a flying wrench and fell down the entire building. He hit 3704 in a surrounding apartment near Monkey Co. East.

3697 attempted to pass safety standards through this universe's parliament to prevent any more monkey deaths. After one day on the job, he gave up on life because the situation was so hopeless.

Don't use NS stats except for changes in economics, political freedoms, or civil rights which may eventually make their way into written canon if I get tired of worldbuilding.

Monkey 3694 had not been paying attention when he was walking his dog, and went through a series of events.

First he was almost hit by a train, but he had to stop because he got a text.

Then his dog got away, and he miraculously ran through a HUGE busy street to catch him.

When he caught his dog, he bent down to pet him, and barely dodged a giant laser from a spaceship flying over his head.

Next he walked through a giant war zone in New Monkey City between the CyberMonkeez from Planet X47 and the Allied Monkey Republics of Earth. He managed to walk through the whole thing, and without a scratch.

Finally, he went into a doughnut shop (that was still open during the war), just in time to avoid the very edge of a bomb shockwave.

But then...he decided to eat the doughnut he bought. Three days later, he died in his home from the doughnut having cyanide frosting.
