Sigur Ros-Svo Hijott.

Every time I listen to older Sigur Ros, it brings back some really old and good memories of how I discovered this band, and some of the good ol' times with friends on a game. This might be partly why I love Sigur Ros so much, I don't know. I always remember how much I like this band every time I listen to the older stuff of theirs. Kinda nostalgic memories I guess.

Sigur Rós-Ég anda.

Really liking what they are doing with this album so far. Sigur Ros is always innovative with their albums. They are always distinctively Sigur Ros, but they always do something new and never really seem to have an album that sounds exactly alike to each other. This albums mellow even for Sigur Ros standards, but I'm really liking it.

□□□□□□ (Ming Ming Bai Bai Wo De Xin) by Jackie Chan and Sally Yeh.

Not nearly as interesting or politically-themed as Cui Jian, and VERY syrupy, but also pretty easy for someone with only a few years of Chinese under his belt.

Wait an hour, and it will be now again
