Monkey 2924 tried to break the cycle of monkeys dying because they saw other monkeys dying.

He died.

Monkey 2923 tried to break the cycle by killing Monkey 2922.

Little did he realize, because the Monkeys aren't assigned numbers, it is just chosen as they die, the Monkey that died was Monkey 2923.

Monkey 2920 went back in time before Monkey 10000 jumped off a cliff and instead jumped off, therefore making himself Monkey 10000, the original 10000 Monkey 9999, and every Monkey number shifted down one.

(if this hurts your head, that means that Monkey 2921 is actually monkey 2920, so just continue with monkey 2919)

Monkey 2944 somehow boarded a US missile destroyer, launched a tomahawk cruise missile at the residence of monkey 2943-2940, killing them instantly. Monkey 2944 was shot on sight on counts of treason, manslaughter, and committing war crimes.

Monkey 2917 was confused at all the people getting numbers wrong. He scratched his head so much that it cracked open his skull and the unfortunate monkey died.

Monkey 2912 (previous one was 2913) was yet another monkey who sacrificed himself to correct a monkey numbering error.

Monkey 2907 invented a time machine and travelled back in time. She became the very patient zero of a new disease which had become endemic in her great-grandparents' time and, ironically, had been wiped out by her father's brilliant research just before she was born.
