3 of 10.

I love small redneck American towns.
Many times I leave from Miami or NYC and start driving North or South respectively to explore these little islands of inbred tranquillity.
It's also a very patriotic experience. Most houses in these towns have the flag of the States over them . More flags than an army camp.

A union of states with a confusing government and a rigid and oppressive (but in the citizen's eyes, fair) caste-like class system.

Democracy ~ Rationalism ~ Integrity

Sometimes I wonder whether I should actually go through the trouble to get a degree when nigh-complete automation will most likely make me redundant anyway.
