Monkey 4711, after having an existential crisis after losing all of his family in the genocide played a game of Russian Roulette and blew his brains out.

You're 4709.

Monkey 4708 never stopped screaming. As it turns out, you can't breathe and scream at the same time.

People tend to assume that Entrance of the Gladiators by Julius Fučík is what that ever so famous circus clown theme is. And in a way, it is. Nobody would ever argue with you on this fact.

However, if you want to be an unlikable, pedantic jerk, the song actually known to be circus music would be a version composed for American woodwind bands (and later transcribed for fairground organs) titled Thunder and Blazes, published by Louis-Philippe Laurendeau.

Of course, this information is of absolutely no consequence to anyone.

Monkey 4701 tried to raise an army of the remaining monkeys to stop the genocide but was assassinated before he could get to the rallying point.

The monkey army quickly dispersed.

Monkey 4700 was part of the army. He fought valiantly until the end, when he stepped on a rock and fell into a pool of acid.

Monkey 4695 was poached.

They're still monkeys, after all. And at this point there's no way they're not considered endangered.

People tend to assume that Entrance of the Gladiators by Julius Fučík is what that ever so famous circus clown theme is. And in a way, it is. Nobody would ever argue with you on this fact.

4693 was a red army soldier along with 4692, 4691, 4690, 4689, and 4688.

German Monkey Gunner 4687 had just reloaded an ammo belt when he heard URRRAAH!

all the monkeys were killed by the MG42, but then a Bf-109 aircraft (containing 4686, was shot down, and crashed into 4687's fortification, the explosion shattering their bones, and leaving them to die.

three days later the soviets entered Germany.

Monkey 4688 and 4687 tried to take on Manny Heffley, who started this monkey genocide.

He called them both ploopies, which caused them to die of dehydration on account of crying all the water in their bodies out.
