I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Yup. Going through a bunch of the ambient music I have because I got in a mellow mood after going through a ton of Johann Johansson. I posted a link showing all the music I've gone through this week. Some I just listened to but most I have gone through.

Again. I'd go as far as to say: Song of the Year 2013.

It's definitely doom metal song of the year.

YouTube working like crap makes listening to YouTube annoying, and going through liking stuff annoying as well because it won't freaking like properly...

Bong Ra Vs Igorrr-Tombs

Also interesting. I'll probably need to check this album out when it comes out. Enjoyed what I heard of Igorrr before anyway, and need to go through more.

The quality on 1080p also isn't as good as flac, but I'm too lazy be a hardcore audiophile.
