North Germany and Prussia controls parts of Prussia, Pomerania, Mecklenburg, and Schleswig, while not holding any territory in Brandenburg which was actually the original holdings of the house of Hohenzollern. They are neighbored by a nearly-unified Germany, Poland, and a Baltic Union that somehow also controls Lithuania.

Giovanni de Verrazzano, John Cabot and Jacques Cartier originally referred to the region they discovered as Norumbega, which was a fabled city that supposedly existed in the area.

I've learned that someone like Overboss Nora Hart is not to be judged by the appearance alone. Like, you would think that she might be cold and uncaring, but once you realise about her no-discrimination policy and all that, she's not so bad after all.

The war actually diminished a large chunk of Asia's potential population.

However yes, the population is condense in urban areas.

The world during Valentine Zs Cold War timeline could be considered dystopic, but advanced, with quantum physics being already mastered in 1950. How? I don't know. Regardless, teleportation devices were already made, again, in 1950. mind-boggling.

In 1450, Harmonia got caught up in a worldwide catastrophic event dubbed the Century of a Thousand Wars. It was caused by numerous factors, mainly a lengthy and harsh summer, causing droughts and famine, followed by a supervolcanic eruption in Einffit.

They exist on a planet called Yverde, which was initially the site of a war between heaven and hell, dragons, Germanic tribes from Earth, and much more. Since then, the Harmonic Empire has gone through four permutations and counting.
