Mumford & Sons - I Will Wait

Hmm. Apparently they're similar enough to Irish music that they come up on a Flogging Molly Pandora station.

They got an Oscar for like, best "Americana" band, which I found hilarious with them being...British?

Also, their first album is better then their second, in my opinion. From what I've heard of it, anyway.

Yeah, but the style of their music does sound very... Appalachian? It's damn close to American folk music.

You like saying opinion, even if something is not an opinion.

Slingshot Dakota - Light

Well, how someone likes an album is obviously an opinion, so yeah.
And I like their first one more then their second. Which is an opinion.
Some people might like the 2nd one more.

And I've actually used that less then I used to.

Album preference is an opinion yes, but I wasn't referring to this particular situation.

Sorry man, had no idea U2 sounded like Flogging Molly or that Celtic culture is restricted to Ireland.

They don't, probably because they don't play Irish music. They might be from Ireland, but they play alternative rock.

or that Celtic culture is restricted to Ireland.

It isn't, but note how I haven't gotten any bagpipers to play on my Irish station yet. Irish and Scottish are two different genres of music, and lumping them together as Celtic is a fallacy.

See, Dr. Cooper? You're not the only one who can be pedantic.
