It'd be funny if it wasn't so sad, but here we are. Josephine Zalabia Amina El-Katkoota. Wonderful, very colourful name, truly. As colourful too are her policies. Arming each individual to the point of insanity is certainly something. Must require a lot of money, one would assume, and yet through the miracle of loans the Kween is capable of funding a negative tax rate.

Beyond her policies, she represents a rot. A disappointment. An abandonment of true principles, such as egalitarianism and loyalty, and perverts it to the point of ruin. A mockery of every principle that one could hold dear. Aggression and boastfulness, favouritism and populism. I am disgusted."

"Well. A hereditary leader. I have no love for nepotism, nor do I have love for someone who views democracy as not a given inherently. Seems like all of Miss Leader's achievements are coasting upon the success of her cousin. Her 'loyalty' to the homeland clearly proves her competence as a leader, right? At least I can agree on hatred of the left."

"This so-called 'Daughter of Athena' or whatnot seems to pose as a hero of some sorts, representative of the Ancient Greek pagan gods, but he has been clearly been deluded and misguided. He makes little effort to properly interact with anyone, and furthermore he is a hypocrite in his fight for justice as he has taken over criminal syndicates for some morbid reason. My main gripe is his embracement of the old Greek gods; a horrible case of idolatry and an insult to our one true faith. I don't care how strong he is in combat or how his powers work; may the whole Olympic pantheon burn in the fires of Hell, I say forthmost."

IC: the Order of Mare Nostrum, but are also known as the Knights of Mare Nostrum or simply Mare Nostrum.

Anthem: Ave Regina Caelorum

The Knights of Mare Nostrum are an order formed in 1189 centered around islands in the Mediterranean after the Knights Hospitaller and Templar merged, along with the integration of other knightly orders, serving as a militarized Papal State which utilises what is essentially hyper-militaristic canon law.

Suits us well, cause we can at least get to know his forces better and prepare for Rapture invasion, in case his pragmatism demands to attack us. I believe, Rapture only has permanent interests, so... no matter what are our current relations, they can change like a wind in high seas. This rhetoric about "Eradication" and disdain towards the world about gives me a reason to believe, that we should at least study Rapture's military and decide, which communal tactics would be best during the defense against his forces in case shit happens. I mean, anything can happen, so we should anticipate all and every outcome, from limited friendship to a total war." - Shawn Bjornson

At a press conference, about the upcoming opening of "Home for the Elderly" in the sovereign state of Dubai, a journalist asked her opinion about the leader of the Gonswanza nation:

“ I think she is a very tough woman with an explosive temperament, we are two different poles, because really I am a very sociable and very noble woman at the same time, I have a vision of what can improve in a nation without violence and with diplomacy as I went to the "Revolution of the Altars". But in his heart (some consider him to be made of stone or rock), he must have a noble behavior that no one has known due to his history and his sudden inauguration as president, hence the redundancy, there is a difference in age which being 64 years old and she is 24 years old, there is quite a distance between the ages but if we consider my participation in public life since 1988 in the nation's anarcho-capitalist dictatorship, to end this wonderful opinion, I do not judge anyone without first meet you in person, I hope to send you a telegram for a visit (either in your nation or in ours) to learn more about your leader. ”
