MCR beats both at being shallow rock music manufactured for angsty pre-teens perhaps. I can actually find enjoyment in that album because of its variety and catchiness, but it doesn't even come close to equaling the artistic brilliance of In The Woods and Green Carnation, bands that transcend genres with music that speaks directly to the soul. You should listen to each of those band's albums before judging. They experiment with many different styles throughout their discography.

However, I'll let you off the hook for that because you like Summoning. ☐

Weezer - "Holiday"

Sometimes "shallow" music sounds good. ☐
Be honest.

Also, here is the happiest black metal ever.

Demoniac - Demons of the Night

Show me a black metal song that is happier?

Nargaroth - Frühling is pretty happy. Kvl't ice cream man!

anyways, now I'm listening to Ensiferum - Passion Proof Power
