During an interview with the Chilean newspaper La Tercera in October 2010, Rage frontman Zack de la Rocha confirmed that a new album is in the works, with a possibility of a 2011 release. “We are all bigger and more mature and we do not fall into the problems we faced 10 or 15 years ago. This is different and we project a lot: we are working on a new album due out next year, perhaps summer for the northern hemisphere.”[66]
