Out of their bloody civil strife came a faction more ruthless than all others... thus making the name kind of ironic.

The Godular do not consider the amount of terror as an indicator to military might, as they have the capability to control one universe to the next universe and the systems within it.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...

- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

Eisenstern is a dimensionally transcendental tower (i.e. bigger on the inside) capable of levitation and travel between universes. It currently has over 12 million people living in it. It originally escaped from a universe with magical properties that was being attacked by interdimensional creatures. The tower is divided into several sections, like a guild hall, offices, and residential and industrial zones, all connected by elevator shafts. These sections are always changing in size and shape. The economy is typically dependent on buying low in one universe and selling high in another.

Their capital Miraito, meaning "Future Metropolis", is situated on a northern island near the country's tallest mountain, Mt. Saki. It is most famous for its concerts of virtual singers and its technological advancements combined with pop culture while also being an important seat of government, a cultural and economic hot-spot, and as a tourist attraction.

Kabzeel, meaning "God's Gathering" in hebrew, is a federal, dominant-party, socialist(non-marxist)constitutional monarchy with a rich Jewish heritage dating back to its creation in 845 CE. Today, it spans almost the entirety of Eastern Europe and is the largest predominately Jewish and female-led state in the world as it follows the doctrine of "Royal Socialism", a paternalistic conservative ideology with an emphasis on socialization, social ownership, and conservative feminism. Its relationship with Israel is noticeably rocky, but this is due to the ongoing complications between Kabzeelian and Israeli Zionism.

The history of the country is marked by conflict with the Dragon Domains and the Kingdom of Heaven, with golden ages as well as dark ages. There was a Sandrau Empire, which collapsed from dragon attacks. Two empires formed in its place, which joined together in the Union of Harmonia against Heaven.
