Stevie Wonder - Isn't She Lovely

Such a happy, feel-good song. ☐

Progressive Death Metal from the album "The Malkuth Grimoire" (2015)

Another great album released this year, but it's such a shame that I only found out about it today...

Beyond Creation - No Request For The Corrupted

I was listening to pop just a moment ago, now I'm listening to tech death. Not entirely sure what happened there.

They're not bad now, but they really were better in the beginning.
I've always loved their older songs-"Saturday" is my favorite.

"In Pieces"-Linkin Park
Album: Minutes to Midnight
Genre: Linkin Park (they really don't fit anywhere else)

One of my favorite LP songs. Of course, Linkin Park makes so many good songs,
it's hard to pick ONE favorite. ☐

Catholic, pro-life, and proud of it. I prefer my debates on religion, politics, and sports with some coffee and a little Aquinas and G.K. CHESTERTON here and there. :3

They're not bad now? They're terrible now! Save Rock And Roll was bearly listenable. I can't say I was ever really a fan of any of their work. Some of it is alright though (like Infinity On High).

I'm just going to ignore that last thing about LP so feelings aren't hurt. Agree to disagree.

Eh. I liked "Immortals"...but really only the Nightcore version. For when I work-out.

Best album is "From Under The Cork Tree", hands down.

Not heavy enough? The rap-rock isn't your thing? Genre changes? Just curious. :3

I don't like rap, but really what it comes down to is the lyrics. Most of them sound like an acne-faced preteen sitting in his basement being angry at his parents wrote them (mostly the early stuff though). Minutes To Midnight was nice because it sort of went away from that (Hands Held High is the one rap-based song that I actually enjoy). But LP were otherwise never really a band that blew my mind. A Thousand Suns was decent, I liked the story behind it and a couple of the songs were good, Living Things was okay, I liked the atmosphere (though there wasn't much in the typical sense), but The Hunting Party was an attempt to be heavy and revive some of their previous sound that completely failed. Bad album.
