It's entirely normal to have romantic feelings for video game and anime characters.

Does having a crush really count as 'Romantic feelings'? I kind of think of having a crush and actually being romantically attached to someone as being different things.

I have a crush on Ellie in The Last of Us, too...

Never really found anime characters attractive to be honest. Cute in an anime sort of way, sure, but never like OMG crush attractive or whatever. Not that I've particularly watched much anime related stuff.

Not at all. I just don't know if I would really consider my own personal experiences as being 'romantic attractions' or just attraction. If there really is a difference.

I'm just weird with words is all.

If you have a crush on a character, that's romantic attraction to them. ☐

Metsatöll - Iivakivi

Now some Estonian folk metal. This is kinda tricky to listen to because it's somewhat similar to Finnish but I can't understand shit Well, some words are similar but mostly it just sounds similar.

Pffft, difference between Estonian and South-western Finnish dialect (my dialect) is just ~80 kilometers (49 miles) of sea and 800 years, I can handle this.

Metsatöll - Hetk Enne Lahingut

Only bizarre word on that title is Lahingut. All others I know. And dictionary check revealed that it has something to do with fight.
