I would visit.. But due to the lack of civil rights and cars being banned I would not live there.

Maybe. They are better than many of today's countries. I especially like the level of their political freedom.

But I do not like the fact that 6% of deaths in your country occur due to "Acts of God"... It's suspicious

As A Fan Of Religious But Tolerant Countries, I Think I Will Live, Although There Will Be A Lot Of Moral challenges, I Think It Will Be Worth It With Those High Economy And Civil Rights, A Right To Protest, And Space Programs! Seems to be a reasonably democratic and free nation, in an area known for having the best climate in the world. I wouldn't mind living there.

My nation - which is pretty much just a unified Korea with some extra territory - represents my real views, as does pretty much anything I say on the forums. NS stats only broadly representative. Feel free to call me Q&K, Quartia, or any other nickname.
