I just spent the past 10 minutes looking for a track that I thought was missing from an album...it was in the tracklist the whole time and I just didn't see it.

Wu-Tang Clan - Bring Da Ruckus

My dad cough illegally downloaded cough Sigur Ros stuff back in the day (Before Spotify) so I could check more of them out, and for the longest time, I didn't realize one of the albums was missing a track until I ran across it by accident. Now I have a bunch of ways to make sure the albums ARE the full thing, and don't have to illegally download it to try it anymore. Doesn't mean I'm legally listening to it, though, if it's on YouTube or something. But still, it being on YouTube will in the end help me figure out if I care about owning it in the first place.

That happened to me as well (except I didn't illegally download it).

Eh, at least you can't get in trouble for listening to it on Youtube, unless you're the one that posted it. There's an album on Youtube that wasn't available on any of the streaming services, but it was taken down before I could listen to the whole thing.

Ended up buying it and thought it was average...could have saved me $12 (which, I know, isn't a lot, but I could have bought something I'd actually enjoy).

EDIT: Forgot to post the song.

Wu-Tang Clan - Wu-Tang: 7th Chamber
