Thomas E. Dewey (R) (1952) ---> Adlai Stevenson (D) (1956) ---> JFK (D) (1960) ---> LBJ (D) (1963) ---> Barry Goldwater (R) (1964) ---> George Wallace (D to R) (1968)

The US presidents of SP-verse. Dewey and Stevenson were nothing too extraordinary presidents as the 50s were the Golden Age of America. JFK was when things seemed hopeful until he was assassinated. Barry's veto of the 1964 CRA set the stage for the American Autumn crisis and Wallace made it worse by going COINTELPRO on Civil Rights movements.

Eh, not really. I can think of a few scenarios that would make an America neither fully dystopian or utopian interesting. For example:

1. A post apocalyptic US/US-successor state that has been relegated to a few cities because reasons. (I.E "Enclave but it controls Delaware and they aren't douchebags.")
2. An America that is experiencing rapid social change but doesn't really know what to do. For example, a new great awaking.
3. Past-Tech America (Before 1920s).
4. A meme version of the Utopian America nations where everything seems perfect on the outside, but it's actually hiding a problem much greater than even our own.

~~Of course, not only is this subjective, but some have probably already been tried and didn't turn out good.~~

1)A while back, a bunch of Fallout-inspired nations did that to death. I'm not much of a gamer so it all seemed the same to me. Mea culpa.

I honestly can't say much about 2 and 3. But yeah, tastes are subjective and that's the beautiful thing about world-building...there's variety to choose from.

If killing Civil Rights is a thing, I'd go to the roots and make race relations bad. Well, worse anyways. For the depressing world of The Solar Remnant, the POD is Sam Houston as president in 1844.

- 1) All of Mexico north of 25 degrees is annexed. North Mexico and California become territories and not states but the slave state divide eventually happens anyways, with a Civil War.
- 2) Tejano ethnic deansing/disenfranchisement/La Matanza-type tensions are multiplied in scale compared to OTL and prolonged with Mexican LICs.
- 3) Nat Turner gets bit by a rattlesnake or something and there's no anti-literacy laws for a generation; somebody else that takes Nat's place, maybe his son, and educated religious ringleaders organize a huge almost Haiti-style slave revolt and bloody guerrilla war during a Civil War in sparcer-populated new slaveholding territories.

Oh and there's an earlier Pacific War in that timeline because the Japanese get cocky over discovering oil in Manchuria that the Navy faction exploits when they beat the Army in mainland interests (ironically enough), so the USN thrashes the IJN but then grow overconfident and pull a Downfall that kills +500,000 Americans. With that, Japanese Americans are basically turned into a scape goat and get economically ghettoized, Asians in general are seen as perpetual foreigners and no war brides means fewer ice-breaking interracial marriages and no progress to a colorblind Immigration Act of 1965...so a very WASPy America where Segregationists were proven historically "right" because "normwhites are violent".

Obviously the turn of presidential successions and the Turner thing makes for lots of artistic liberties, but hey, it's not entirely impossible and that's all that matters to me.

Wow, that sounds even worse than America IRL. But ye, I should explore American race-relations a lot further than just making shit happens. But I try to justify Goldwater's victory by stating that the American populace distrusted LBJ for allegedly having a hand in JFK's assassination. No Eisenhower to push the the 1957 CRA led to worse race tensions and Goldwater vetoing the 1964 Act supported by the Democrats under LBJ on state's rights ground paved the way for a Dixiecrat like Wallace to switch parties and do what he did best.

God How I envy your editing skills...

Also. Lol, LeMay. I wonder if LeMay will instill racial equality by cowing and over-working all his subordinates in the same way. Whatever he has cooking up against the domestic left and Vietnam will make Nixon look like a mollycoddling nanny. Whatever plan replaces Duck Hook is gonna be a major pain.

Threads in F7 that are "Make a history of [UNPRONOUNCEABLE RANDOMLY GENERATED NATION NAME]". Those were more common a couple of months ago.

Bandwagon threads are always the worst, you got those 'MAKE A HISTORY' threads now, a while back you had 'NS sings' threads, I predict the next trend will be pickle threads.

I have no basis on this other than the fact that I just ate a pickle.

Edit: Oh and while I know they weren't a bandwagon concept, remember when the NSG Senate was a thing and would take up like half the threads on this board?

Let's also not forget numbers threads. You know, the ones where you either add or remove a number depending on which side you supported? They were everywhere.

anyways, it's already NS-specific, so anything else would have to be based on non-NS stuff, which probably wouldn't attract as much interest, even if it's something a lot of NS users do use.

Like you could maybe do a Discord clichés, but what would even be the point?

(Besides everyone knows the only Discord clichés are grooming and 'Hey guys, please keep the memes out of #general, thank you. So anyways, as I was saying, yes I do think that if black people can say it, then white people should be allowed to say the n-word.') introducing the discord and NS crossover no one asked for, i can only imagine what a combo that would be because i am not in a NS discord

TBH I don't even know where half the Discord clichés came from but then again I started using it back when it was still a GAMER-focused chat software with EPIC GAMER JOKES in the loading screens for all the EPIC hardcore gamers who use this GAMING chat software and not a more general purpose chat program cuz of everyone using it cuz of COVID-19.
