The maximum of 20 years in rehabilitation but most likely they would just get thrown through an inter-dimensional gate that leads who knows where

Edit ninja 'd depends on whether it was intentional, rehabilitation (not just alcohol rehabilitation, but behavioral rehabilitation) time and fine if unintentional and for intentional lots more rehabilitation time

Robots shouldn't have rights or citizenship;
Compromise on other non-human sapient entities is possible, with limitations, but not on these buckets of bolts. They should serve humanity and have absolutely no place in society other than as our servants. Think of the benefits of this. Plus, they would almost certainly overtake humanity if we gave them the chance, whether out of pure advanced abilities or malice, or worse, both. Think of humanity.

Talibanadians are not allowed to drive cars so it must have been smuggled in or stolen from a government official. Furthermore alcohol is prohibited everywhere. So you would be looking at execution at the very least; torture and interrogation of your entire family and friends at most.

Depends on which religion. If it is state religion, death by firing squad.

Killing somebody that tried to break into your house (I don't think there's a name for that in the USA.)

(Don't mind me posting so much) Depends what it is. If it is a gun, legal. If it is deadly toxin, legal. But, if it is a Bomb, military vehicle, or poison, death by firing squad.

War crimes or Sexual Assault. Chose which one. (Or both lol)

How about both? Felonious war crimes by a Commonwealth Warrior of a sexual nature (after a full review court martial) warrants being stripped of all rank and honors and execution by hanging. Misdemeanor war crimes of a sexual nature warrants being stripped of rank and honors, up five years hard labor per charge, and dishonorable discharge. Inappropriate sexual behavior that is tortuous is usually handled by nonjudicial punishment by the warrior's command (and can include demotion, fine, and work force labor) but will be subject to civilian legal processes (e.g., the victim's party may take the warrior to court). Sexual inappropriate behavior that is neither crime nor tort will receive harsh reprimand, deferral to advancement, and possible extra work detail (at no pay). As with all actions of this nature the victim will receive an apology (with detailed assurances to the party and its community as to why it won't happen again) from the warrior's Command.

If you are caught, or otherwise suspected, typically you would be detained for a varying period of time until authorities can discern your motivation for carrying out said abortion. And it does depend on what you (often under duress) admit to - since if for state approved reasons (like being at health risk) then the most likely scenario would be getting released. But if it was in order to bypass the state restrictions (since Cierridan medical facilities don't allow for abortions in the case of like someone simply not wanting to rear children due to the very pro-natalist policies of the FCLN), then you may end up spending a year or two in prison to undergo re-education. But for the most part, back alley abortions are not too common because of the institutionalization of medical abortions in state run facilities, tho they do obv still happen especially near the frontlines of the warzone where infrastructure and numerous hospitals have been reduced to rubble

Edit: Ninja'd once again...

The private selling of commodities outside of state distribution centers is in itself a violation and when coupled with the selling of harmful objects(that are more often than not geared towards children), can culminate in public execution for the combined charges of bourgeois activity and attempted child murder

As always, the first time will only warrant a warning, but do it again, but you are boiled alive in a vat of molten gold, and that gold used to pay your debts. Also you must do 260 hours of community service and pay a T100,500,000 fine.
