The nation has more than 400 languages, with the most dominant ones being English, Spanish and French. However, the nation does not have an official language.

The government forces its news agencies to release material regardless of its attitude towards said government - in effect, it imposes mandatory de-censorship. Not something I expected from a nation like the PAS.

They are an alternate universe version of the Republic of China, where it won the civil war but because of political instability in 1951 President Shanghen declared an empire to destroy the last communist remnants in China

From the description of the Emperor of the Imperium of Man, one can think that the society of this Human-controlled galaxy is based on a cult of personality around the leader.

They're a semi Democratic theocracy that encompasses much of OTL Canada and they're ethnic makeup seems to be a hodgepodge of various European Catholic Cultures. Also the The thirteen colonies are referred to as the Thirteen States.

Partially inspired by the Third Odyssey mod for EU4, this nation is essentially a Byzantine successor state in South America that has fused together Ancient Greek Religion with Greek Orthodox Christianity. It mixes the aesthetic of Byzantium and Ancient Greece, with very open and liberal social values but with an Imperial Monarchy. NS stats are referenced but are not strictly followed to a T.

Their land army's weapons platforms vary technologically, ranging from early 20th Century bolt-action rifles to Cold War-era submachine guns and semi-automatic rifles.

Inkopolitia: The inklings turned the tide of war against the Kingdom of Perú when they were at the brink of defeat by applying a more aggressive strategy...which we interpret as counter-attacks...and then reversed the roles against Perú, resulting in an unconditional surrender and their King's execution. Also, we're surprised the Chileans didn't aid you.
