In the federal states in which alcohol has been legalized, it isn't a crime. However, in the federal states in which it is illegal to sell and consume alcohol, between 2-5 years in prison and a fine of up to €75,000 zinars depending on the amount being trafficked.

Financing a Terrorist Organization or Acts of Terrorism

Breaking false idols are encouraged in Aswaltica. Paganism results in death by firing squad.

5-20 years depending on the circumstances. If its done in order to kill someone, its treated as attempted murder (20-30 years or life in prison, with an average sentence of 26 years). If someone is killed in the fire, life in prison.

Jailbreak (without killing anyone)

Depends, but usually legal.

Reactions can go from being ignored to "you cannot tell children stories that promote hate wars". Funny "most creative insult wars". Anti-racial jokes. Telling Counter-Stories with educational background. Demonstrations.

The reaction can also be a special kind of humour, because people gave each other or themselves skin colours and skin ornaments in their mind and talked about it.

"What is this n*gger doing here?"

"Frank's skin color is blue. As a sailor, he has waves on his wrist, a bookmark on his back and the seat distribution of a local council, since he is good in negotiations."

"John, which skin color does Frank have?"

"Blue"

"Color blind idiots"

"You seem to only know black and white. Life is colourful hugs Frank

Is it legal to tell children inappropriate bed time stories?

Life imprisonment usually, though the lowest ever punishment was 20 years for a man illegally smuggling Milo. Milo is not illegal.

edit: Ninja'd. Writing...

Not illegal, 25% chance of a fine if someone complains.

Stabbing someone a day after they assassinated a government employee?

in some places (such as nudist beaches) is allowed. Otherwise you are probably fined, and if you are harassing people you are probably jailed in a police station for a day or two.
