Party of Social Revolutionaries would be my choice since they support democracy in the nation, and also social democratic and socialist policies as wealth gaps in the nation are huge. They are also progressive and support more inclusivity in the nation.

Despite being a "big-tent" of multiple competing factions party, the Order of the State is strongly appealing due to its radical politics, technocratic tendencies, and fervent accelerationism.

Conservative Party

The Conservative Party is the fourth largest party in Parliament and the largest opposition party. They hold 81 seats in Parliament. They were founded on November 15, 1851. Their current leader is Johan Becker, who, as the leader of the largest opposition party, is Leader of the Opposition. Their policies include conservatism, interventionism, criminalizing abortion, legalizing marijuana, and free trade.
