They're were formed during the "Second America Civil War", which in reality consumed all of North America and were actually founded by Mexican Socialists in the Aftermath of right wing coup against AMLO. They were able to win the war by centralizing the military under a woman named Alexandria Xochitl. Their capital is both named after and on the site of Xoxhitl's base during the conflict.

Authoritarian Italian based nations are cliché, Colonial Imperialist nations are cliché, Welfare Monarchies are cliché, but how about all three in one! Still Cliché? Well that's what this nation is.

From now on please refer to this nation as Aostania because I have changed the lore to a name that is more fitting and less convoluted

A Valentine's Day Coup in 2019 saw the parliament dissolved, and one man taking all power for himself. That day was certainly bleak of love for democracy, huh?

North America was a continent where multiple civilizations flourished, traded with each other, died, and invaded each other. However, European colonialism reshaped the future of this continent.
