Execution. If the tax is small, it'd be hanging, if it's a large tax however, they'll be gassed to death.

You'd be hunted down and forced to pay a fine amounting to the unpaid taxes and the fees of the police investigation, then placed on life-long probation for further tax crimes.

Going hunting, aiming at a deer, shooting, missing the deer, and fatally shooting another hunter that had been behind the deer's head.

Still a Crime.

If they were found out to not be able to survive. The Charge can be Lifted.
If it's Seen as Mercy.

But In Most Cases.

K40,000 fine (US$2,000) for the first offence, six months community service for repeat offenses. And that's not even counting the social stigma you'd be subject to - the idea of littering in any way (even something minor like gum) is rather unthinkable as that would be an insult to Papatuanuku, the goddess of the earth.
