Golden Hour , by Kacey Musgraves . I was surprised that it was far more pop than country . Good quality pop music though . It just seems to me that from Taylor Swift on , country artists whom have any talent will tend to cross over to pop at the first opportunity .

I'm re-listening to FF7's J-E-N-O-V-A, and realized how remarkably similar it sounds to the Toccata con fuoco movement of Keith Emerson's "Piano Concerto No. 1".

Strawberry Fields Forever by the Beatles.

Strange song, but I like it.
