"A earnest soul... a young nobleman shown to be talented from the start. There is not much struggle in your way except artificial ones your father created for you to grow but I can't put that against you. After all, suffering is not a privilege but a lesson. Your desire for change and betterment is at least realized for now. Still, establishing a national religion is suspicious. Giving a certain religion a privileged status does tend to lead to... corruption in some ways."

The German man isn't free from degeneracy for the degeneracy of liberalism and democracy will catch up some day. I find it pointless to reverse this trend, Herr Himmler, Hitler was mistaken in believing that the German are the true Aryans and sole inheritor of this Thousand Year Reich under the Black Sun that you're seeking to build. "Hm. I see. You, are immortal. And yet... you were not born immortal? Interesting... I suppose that is an admirable accomplishment, I was unaware it was possible. Hm. This is, truthfully, quite troubling. Breaking the rules like that is bad, and it sets a woeful precedent for your leadership- if your people cannot trust even you, their lord and founder, to follow the laws, what is to stop them from following your example? You claim you chose this path as a result of your paranoid delusions- that, without your wise leadership, Century

Bay would fail. However, I reason that there is one possibility you did not account for- or at least, underestimated- in your bid for immortality. Abandoning principle, and achieving a life without death is good and all, especially if you have no one who looks up to you. But, you are a leader, and, as a leader, I guarantee that leading through example is the most effective form of leadership. Thus, your breaking of all natural law encourages your people to do likewise- murder, indecent exposure, theft, and lying will become rampant. I assure you, sorrow-hearted."

"Why hello there, sir! I... uh... *cough* this might seem awkward. Could you... could you be so kind as to go into your combat form when we meet in person? I know last time I spent a lot of time dwelling upon how supremely massive you were, but as you are right now... somehow this is more frightening to me. Please do not take it personally... but... you're adorable... and that is terrifying to me (like a happy human pokemon, it's HAUNTING...). That said, I'm certain we could spend much time regaling each other with the wonders of feline pets, and I have no problem with this. You might think that this is contradictory, that my aversion to 'cute' things would preclude my appreciation of kittenly hijinks, but I assure you with the utmost of certainty: *shrug*." -KazRamael

"I do not see a group of commonsensical figures fit to lead a nation, all I see are a bunch of fools with mental disorders, and this one, like the rest with gibberish names, does not stand out. Great countries should be grateful to have leaders not like this one, with a grating voice of a smoker and the complacency of a lazy child."

"Alfred Furrer- you virulent pretender! I charge you with vainglory- how dare you take such prancing pride in 'your' accomplishments, when all you have ever done in your wormy little life is talk! I despise you with every fiber of My divine body, and wish you to suffer nothing less than the most horrible, torturous, and painful of deaths. And then, I wish for you to be brought back from your damnation to die suffering again, and again, and again. You vile creature, I loathe you! Any happiness which the world suffers you, I wish it to be immediately squashed in your mouth. My complete and utter hatred for you can not be contained in mere words- if you were to comprehend one hint of My contempt, it would squash you under its undying weight. I will make you suffer, I will destroy you, and I will ruin each and every fragment of glory you think you have earned. Truly, the depths of My complete and utter despal is beyond your mortal comprehension- a century after your inevitable death, I will hate you. A millennia after you have been forgotten, I will hate you. And, when all life is ended, and I might join you in death- I will hate you."
- Iltu, the Great Goddess Who Leads, hates you.

Edit:

"This 'McLemon' is a complete and utter fool, but he seems genuinely well-meaning. I do not approve of his actions, but I cannot condemn them either, as it would be akin to a whale- not that I'm a whale, mind you- condemning a starfish for allowing itself to be eaten. It is no concern of Mine, and if he suffers as a result, so be it."
- Iltu, the Great Goddess Who Leads, kinda apathetic.
