A land where humanity is king, above god and devil alike. A blissful Utopia for Humanity, a horrible Dystopia for sentient robots.

Robots shouldn't have rights or citizenship;
Compromise on other non-human sapient entities is possible, with limitations, but not on these buckets of bolts. They should serve humanity and have absolutely no place in society other than as our servants. Think of the benefits of this. Plus, they would almost certainly overtake humanity if we gave them the chance, whether out of pure advanced abilities or malice, or worse, both. Think of humanity.

A medieval fantasy kingdom waging a never-ending war against dark forces from the east. Now the fate of a nation, and of all mankind, lies in the hands of King Harland Gaunt, the Iron Raven, who can either win against an undefeatable enemy, or die with his people.

We need to make a video-game franchise from this, it'll make millions

It's pronounced (Aid-yuh) not (Aid-ee-uh) and definitely not (A-dee-uh).

Honestly, I pronounced it (A-di-ya). I think if it's going to be pronounced (Aiduh), it should be written Aida and not Adia.
