Secret Chiefs 3-Potestas Clavium

In good Secret Chiefs 3 style, this song is like carnival music mixed with metal.

Secret Chiefs 3-Personae: Halloween (Book of Souls Version)

I'm not sure I know any Halloween song that beats Secret Chiefs 3 version of an old horror movie theme.

On that subject, what do you think of Personae: Halloween, Luveria? I can confirm that this song sounds awesome live because I went to see Secret Chiefs 3 with my dad back in May.

The electronic bass sounds in the back sound insane live. There was another song that had lots of electronic bass that sounded crazy.

Still 1 album and 6 random songs by Destruction, then Dethklok album. I'm going through EVERYTHING on my media player, in alphabetical order by artist/band name. If I listen to something else, it ain't from media player but youtube

I go through things in no particular order. There is no whim or reason to my motives. I simply choose songs I listen to.

I decided to do it just for the fuck of it. To see how long it actually takes to go through 11,206 songs that total at 785 hours. Of course that's only when I'm on pc. When I go outside, I listen to random stuff.

Destruction - Life Without Sense

I like this re-recorded version just a bit more than the original.

I'm too lazy to walk. ☐

I Ejaculate Fire is an epic song.

Melodeath can be quite nice. I find it's like metalcore in which the majority of bands are meh, but all it takes is finding good melodeath bands. Some melodeath is soft and weenie-metallish like In Flames can be, and others are brutally heavy like At the Gates.

The name signified that there were 3 members.

Now they have 7 sub bands (All technically the same name, but they do have names for the subs, like The Electromagnetic Azoth), and I don't even know how many members they fluctuate between.

Also, metal one that was never recorded, so you have to deal with live quality.

Favorite electronic one, probably.

Another favorite of mine I'm not sure you'd like or not.

Zombies

A lot of their stuff is very experimental, and has carnival, middle eastern, jazz, and so on influences, so yeah. Some sound like some old spaghetti western soundtracks
