Idk, ummm....Rishloo, Muse...I don't remember anymore.

Queen- Seven Seas of Rhye (Instrumental)

Rishloo isn't very well known though. I more meant things like Mumford & Sons, Muse, Radiohead, and so on that you've probably heard the names of more.

Oh, right! My brain's slow today.

Queen- We Will Rock You

I know this song's so overplayed, but tbh, I haven't heard it for the longest time.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

So today you've gone from Queen I to News of the World. Am I correct?

Oh, and I've hear that song twice today, and I sang along both times...you've got nothing to be ashamed of sir.

Send Her My Love (Live Version) - Journey

I love the live version, just cause he says 'Journey's on the road again!' in there in place of the normal lyric. ☐
