Hate Eternal - Our Beckoning

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Ajattara-Agras

Best song on this album, and only one I deemed worth keeping on my playlist. Most of Ajattara didn't really do much for me except...SURPRISE, their more recent, less popular stuff.

Rot In Hell - Armoured Gideon

Pretty much like a more apocalyptic Poison Idea.

Lana Del Rey - Ultraviolence

lyrics

Like the fact she has been considered very unoriginal, and picks about every lyrical cliché she can out of the books and puts them into her songs? Not to mention she just sounds like a rehash of, I dunno, some music from a bygone time. Which isn't inherently a bad thing. I like some The Black Keys. But still.

I actually almost liked one of her newer songs, but I got bored of it really fast. Doesn't help the video was dumb and kept repeating over and over.

Ajattara - Aura

My favorite song by them. I've only listened to Murhat because it's the only album on Spotify. Though I am very interested in hearing Noituma eventually.
