Haha, it's one of my favorite Blind Guardian songs, first song I heard from them too

Warriors Of The World United - Manowar

Genre: Power Metal

Album: Warriors Of The World

I'm not one to have favorite songs (I prefer to choose favorite albums or bands in general), but this one song is top-tier for me. Kickass bassline, badass lyrics, steady drumming, and well-supporting guitar.

I don't know much about Dimmu Borgir, never bothered to check that out. All I know is I was reading the comments of a Satanic Warmaster song on youtube one day and someone said it sounded like Borgir, and a dude replied "don't even compare this masterpiece to one of Borgir's shits".

Early Borgir is excellent, after their third album they went downhill.

Good to know for the day I decide to check that out. When I listen to new bands or music I usually listen to one newer song and one older. Great thing to do, I forget what band it was but I was turned off by the new stuff but the older albums kicked ass.

I think I'm in the minority that prefers the more recent Death Cult Armageddon and ABRAHADABRA for Dimmu Borgir. They go more symphonic and epic/theatrical with less focus on the black metal and with better modern production quality. And I like it a lot.

That said, I haven't heard For All Tid, Spiritual Black Dimensions, or In Sorte Diaboli yet.

Dimmu Borgir - The Sinister Awakening

I in other hand haven't listened to Abrahadabra yet and Death Cult Armageddon was my least favorite album ☐
Currently at In Sorte Diaboli.

It was 3/5. And agreed with the Behemoth song, except for me it isn't the best, but it's easily the best on that album ☐

Well since I've only heard two Behemoth albums, and The Satanist was easily my favorite, it makes it an easy choice for me ☐

And let me guess, the other Behemoth album you've heard is Evangelion?

purist mode on It's not black metal! It's way too clean and overproduced and plastic to be considered black metal!!!! purist mode off

Dimmu Borgir - Dimmu Borgir

Imo Anorexia Nervosa pulls this whole symphonic black metal thing way better than Dimmu.

That's why I said "by a black metal band" and not "black metal song"
☐ More accessible gateway stuff has to exist, or else few would ever get to the great stuff.
But I still enjoy that song. BE THE BROKEN OR THE BREAKER. UNLOCK AND OPEN THE DOORS. The keys are in your hands...
