All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Having one of those days where I can't exactly figure out what I want to listen to. Clicked on all these various metal bands and was like "Meh" because I'm not in the mood to listen to like, any of the vocal styles used in the metal songs. So mostly instrumental electronic will have to do for now.

I've been needing to go through this album more thoroughly.

You're an electronic type of guy, right? Maybe you'd like Amon Tobin, though from what I've seen you prefer more upbeat electronic so it may be a little slow for you, but I dunno.

8 albums and 21 EP's by Amon Tobin since 1995.....Might take me a while to go through him completely, which I'm not doing right now.

Hmmm, one of the albums is a video game soundtrack.

I'm pretty sure all the singing in here that sounds like a girls singing is all Amon Tobin going through heavy effects.

That's me. I like myself a little metal and other stuff, but mostly electronic. You gave me some stuff from FC3 which was good. I'll check him out.
