I don't think I like a single truly punk band yet. I listen to some bands classified as "post-punk revival", though.

Billy Talent's melodic punk is vastly different from regular punk. Melopunk in my opinion is like the punk version of meloblack. I suggest you try Billy Talent, if I have not already showed you it.

Kinda. My sister (and mom) used to listen to them quite a bit, and I found it decent. Not something I'd listen to a ton, though.

Think their new album is their weakest, while the one before that was their strongest.
