That last one is the entire point of this nation, and now that the actual game has been released I can make it even closer! I guess it's a little cliché, but a lot of the fan nations I've seen are of people, and one or two more famous video games.

One thing I love is how polarized Gameside and the Forums are. I am aware of the technicalities, but it still makes me laugh.

Gameside looks sleek, has new features, and can possibly do anything. See the most recent Regional Banners feature (shameless plug). Forums? Like a dying star that is at least a billion years old.

RP regions aren't really worth it in general. Every one I've been in has almost exclusively focused on writing wiki articles with very few roleplay threads.

And when they do RP, it's often in an RMB, not a forum thread, meaning that you're limited to doing one RP at a time so as to avoid confusion between participants.
