The old woman remembers her beloved father, a humble and innocent carpenter, a very popular person, philanthropist and friend of animals, who during the holidays enjoyed committing war crimes in Bosnia. A hobby that her grandson also enjoys and practices sporadically. Thrilled and with a few tears streaming down her face, she chokes, but despite the fright, she doesn't die... Only for a group of Bosnian military to break into her house and machine gun her down in cold blood.

NewMan is the grandson of the now late, poor kind old lady.
