Alright. Every year is shit. Because bad stuff exceeds good stuff greatly every single year. Case closed, there's no good years.

Why should I waste my time on bad stuff? Why is only caring about good stuff bad? Doesn't make any sense to me.

Kingston Wall - Stüldt Håjt

To use the words of some wise man whose name I don't remember, how do you know what is good if you don't understand the bad?

"Tom Sawyer" -Rush

I have this thing called "memory". I don't need to listen to bad stuff once in a while just remind me "yup as bad as I remembered." I also don't think that can be applied to music that well. I mean, I have ears. If it sounds good, it's good. If it doesn't, it's not.

Let me give you a list...

Roar

One FUCKING FUCK THEM BASTARDS Direction ☐

Every country song of that year, or most years prior (my dad will murder me for saying this, remind me not to mention it next time I see him)

Everything else Katy Perry did that year

Let It Go, which is actually a decent song but blown out of proportion by 13 year old girls who saw the movie on their first period and fell in love with the damn thing

All of Taylor Swift's material from that year

All the rap from that year (excluding the one that keeps going "Drink" which I can't remember but was actually not bad)

So in other words a bunch of popular shit. Popular shit doesn't summarize the entire music industry, you know.

That song annoys the crap out of me for some reason. Movie itself was okay but felt pretty much like every other Disney movie.

Black Sabbath's 13 album

Still need to listen to that.

Get Lucky

I thought that whole Daft Punk album was overrated, though Get Lucky is alright.

Macklemore (don't judge, he's the only good rap artist at the moment)

In radio play rap artists, anyway.

The soundtrack to Pacific Rim

From what I remember of it, it seemed like a pretty generic soundtrack to me.

sigh At least we agree that the shit IS shit...

The opening music after the theme song to S4E1: Two Swords.
