Their capital is Fort Zapata, they control Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and Central America after a mass socialist revolution, and they recognize Somaliland as a country.

Sith State in Southern Africa, that controls Macau, East Timor, New Britain, Goa, Cabinda and Kaliningrad. Recognised global power with highly advanced technology, military force and magic to show for it.

They have a massive surface navy that consists of more than 600 ships which they're actually planning on making bigger. On the other hand, these naval assets are outdated -from our point of view- and consist of inter-war and early WW2-era vessels.

AN: The bulk of their military budget is centered on their air force, due to their nation being large. So large, it's divided in six regions.

They control all of modern-day Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, Columbia, Venezuela, Guyana, Suriname, and French Guiana; which makes them the third-largest polity in South American history, larger than Tawantinsuyu, Wari-Tiwanaku, Argentina, the United Provinces of Río de la Plata, and Gran Columbia, but still smaller than New Spain and Brazil's various incarnations.

The revolution began as a series of riots in the US, followed by more riots in Canada, and then a full-scale rebel uprising in Mexico. These then united into a more coordinated military force under a single leader.

That apparently they managed to establish bases on the Moon, and even proclaim a socialist republic on all of it, without any other superpowers interfering. (I mean, people flocking to the colony for new opportunities makes sense, but I thought, that North America would need to share moon with at least China, or someone else...)
