Pretty well known for unsavory reasons on their old accounts, far less known on their new one.

Pretty well known in II.

I'd say 7/10

A Class .363 Civilization according to this index.
NS stats are not canon with the exception of the rights thingy.

Never seen them before, can't say they are very well known

La Ferra Suprema Reigns Supreme over the vast lands of Stella Nera
A land where humanity is king, above god and devil alike. A blissful Utopia for Humanity, a horrible Dystopia for sentient robots.

Robots shouldn't have rights or citizenship;
Compromise on other non-human sapient entities is possible, with limitations, but not on these buckets of bolts. They should serve humanity and have absolutely no place in society other than as our servants. Think of the benefits of this. Plus, they would almost certainly overtake humanity if we gave them the chance, whether out of pure advanced abilities or malice, or worse, both. Think of humanity.

Humanity First!

I've never seen them before

The Armed Republic of the Gula is a "slightly" unhinged, highly militaristic, and technologically advanced independent global superpower. Set in the year 2034 Some NS stats are canon unless stated otherwise. Nation classification is false.

Hey, I know this guy!

U.S.S. UNITED STATES (CVA-58) "GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN"

Intended as the first of a new class of "supercarriers" for the United States Navy under the administration of President Harry S. Truman. Her design was notorious for lacking an island superstructure and its unconventional deck layout, which would not be seen in the succeeding Forrestal-class.

In 1949, only five days after United States' keel was laid down, she was cancelled by Secretary of Defense Louis A. Johnson as part of a campaign to cut down the naval budget and advance the development of airborne nuclear deterrence via long-range bombers.
