I mean, sure. It sounds wacky enough to be an [interesting] place to live.

Not really sure. I don't know near enough about them to make that judgment.

Of course, I don't really have a lot of information for my nation, either xD

Hmm.. strong economy, somewhat large size, democracy seems to be functioning.

I don't see anything wrong with the country but there is too few information to make a proper judgement but based on the information provided it seems alright.

I think I would be able to make a proper judgement if an overview of the nation's geography and culture is given.

They have a pretty good economy, an alright civil rights record, and decent political freedoms, though I don't know if I would wanna live in a country with that kind of flag.

BN: Before you say no because of our flag, I wanted to give you a disclaimer. We do not have apartheid in our nation, it's set in an alternate timeline where it never existed.

According to factbooks, this country created the IDSF which is a group dedicated to protecting human rights.

Yes, I would live there, there just doesn't seem to be anything wrong.
