Their nation was founded on the ideas of Council Communism and practices soviet-style democracy. Workplaces are organized democratically, and all work is handled based on a system of "from each according to their ability, to each according to their need," where only the amount of goods needed to keep the population happy and healthy are produced (which has led to a total of 4 hours of work a week).

Sounds like what Valentians used to do for harming cats, though minus the death penalty. Nowadays we just rehab the fella until they are thinking straight.
