They pursue a policy of economic autarky on a nationalist basis, forgoing external market access

As with all of Novaluna from before the Tempest to after their Tempest, where the history of its predecessor colony XCL-XV Isle Nereis ends, the history of Neonymphonia begins.

Current date: 3rd of July 2981.

News: Bulgarians became the second biggest ethnic group in the People's Commonwealth of The Five Nations and overtook the Koreans.

The royal government of Braussland is creating a creation known as "the big book" this book will have our grammatical rules. Using this book we will be able to learn and teach our language. It will be the biggest grammar book of the braussian language.

Sounds like a plan to me! 🤖

The fact that other nations are mentioned inside (along with a kiddass map!), and this fact that fascinates me:

The Japanese Empire lacks a Sphere of Influence. As a new and young Empire, it has had little time to manage a base of influence on a weaker country, and its immediate neighbors in China, America, and Russia have chilly (America) or hostile (China) relations with it.

Not a pretty start for Japan for your lore, I might add. 😞

That apparently some libertarians (Probably right-wing libertarians) in its world praise a literal dictator just because she is "strong willed", which makes it questionable, of how libertarian they truly are.

Culturally they rely heavily on class collaborationism and national unity within day to day lives. An example they give of this is the similarities between a poor farmer and a rich man whose views on disorganization are quite similar to each other in the sense they both dislike it.
