Gives the vibe of a generic fantasy world religion.

Factbooks and dispatches (which are works in progress) are the primary source of information for my nation. I try to have my stats match my idea of my nation but I think policies are the stat I can control the most.

I don't dislike anyone here. Agree or disagree, we're all compadres. :-)

The Civil Rights and Political Freedom Ranking is not canon, while the Economy Ranking is.
And also to all those people whining that I'm apparently communist because I have emu's republic in my name, no I'm not communist

Australasia After a dictatorship, and a coup by radical, theocratic libertarians,

It is now a plutocratic, theocratic republic, under The Prosperity, Basically capitalism as a religion.

I use NS stats

AN didn't bother giving the nation a religion, but I would have to say either a tribal religion or an old European pagan one

I'd say this nation is about 85-90% representative to my beliefs

About the only difference between my nation and beliefs is that free markets are effective in a select few situations, and the compulsory organ harvesting is kind of screwed up

I'm probably in the minority, but I actually pay more attention to in game stats than to roleplay
