we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.

It's my favourite Motorhead song. If you like Motorhead you should try High On Fire if you haven't, they're like an angrier, heavier version.

Korosu, Boris.

Overkill's good, but my personal favourite is either No Class, Shine, or, yes, Ace Of Spades...

My dad loved that song, because of the 'double bass drum' thing that hit him by surprise. He's so used to that being in metal songs, it was a pleasant surprise for him to hear it in a rock song, or more specifically, a post-rock song.
