I have many songs I want to upload to YouTube in HD, when I notice those songs aren't available in HD. But I'm so terribly lazy. I don't have the drive and ambition I once did. I blame depression.

Ugh. I hate depressive episodes. I've definitely had some.

Mostly insomnia and ADHD (My mom thinks it's even more serious than ADD, and I agree), though.

I was supposed to fill out diagnostic forms over a month ago, and send it a clinic because my doctor thought I have ADHD, but I was too depressed to do that, so I probably fucked up on getting diagnosed. Maybe in two weeks when I see him again I'll mention it, because when I filled out the papers I had nearly every symptom at the highest rating or close to it.

I was going to clear out all the bands with under 30 songs I have....BUT instead I'm listening to a band with 80 songs. Oh well, I'm kind of in more of an electronic mood than metal apparently, so might as well get these out of the way.

Humans...such a flawed species...I mean, we all have some problem or other with us, even if it is minor.

I'm going to the eye doctor on Friday with my mom to get my eyes checked so I can get glasses. My right eye is pretty bad, but my left isn't so bad. Everything is extremely blurry out of my right eye, all the time. As in, I can't even read what I just typed if I just look out of that eye, even sitting here right at my desk. So I need them. So does my mom. She went recently but got cheap glasses and eye check up, and because of that it seems to of been crap.

I can't read signs when we're driving until we're really close to them, so I need them to at least be able to even drive safely.

My right eye sucks too. Maybe I'll get emo-style glasses sometime, so I don't despise glasses as much as I do.

I'm mixed on glasses. People have said I looked like Harry Potter before with them, so that isn't such a bad compliment. But now I don't really look like that. In fact, I used my dad's driving glasses and I reminded myself of some awesome scientist guy from an old TV show I used to watch. And then I realized how much that said scientist looks freakishly like my cousin, who wears glasses, that my mom said I looked similar to him before. So it's kind of appropriate.
