The Mobian Green Party, a very left-wing party, is seated beside two extremely right-wing groups in both houses of parliament. No mention is given as to whether this means that they are in a coalition with those other parties, but it must get DAMNED uncomfortable sitting in that last row, right next to the royalists. And in the House of Peers those poor folks are right in between the Far-Right and the Alt-Right parties (if I'm reading the colors correctly).

Damned uncomfortable in MULTIPLE meanings of the word.

New Spiedska is located in North America, and was formed after the ashes of the Third Great World War, or GWW3 (AKA WW3 a), it was once a major ally of the United States of America until it fell apart after the Nuclear Bombardment hit, speaking of the US, it fell into Balkanization, being the 'inheritance' of a once-great and powerful Nation.

The country practices some pretty heavy Orwellian policy judging from their "Complete Assimilation" policy. I'll never know how the people could put up with something like this

The Avant-Gardist State of Patagonia ~~~ Gauchos and Mapuches, orgies and parties, avant-garde art, futurism, syndicalism, the New Man, general strikes, the glorification of violence, spiritual nationalism, esoteric occultism, CIA spooks, Spartanian homosexuality, public sodomy, and more

Post-Cold War Bulgaria suffered through economic and political instability as well as natural disasters. A radical revolutionary movement rose to power in 2014, forcing everyone into a rural life and erasing anything that represented the old order, including education and healthcare. The internet and cell phone signals were disabled so no one could organize a resistance.

Seems like they were able to make nuclear fusion power generation give an output that exceeds initial energy costs! (AFAIR, that was a serious issue.) In fact, nuclear fusion contributes 5.1 per cent of total Hatsunese power generation by the year 2020. That's stellar hot!

They have a very interesting trivia-like (a tad bit more intense, I reckon) national pastime that I would actually like to play now. It consists of a number of questions that must be answered logically -- you may not know the answer from the start, but you may deduce the answer within a sixty-second timeframe -- and whoever gets the most correct answers wins. They have a collectivised economy with a GDP of over 6 trillion dollars. Joint-stock or single-owner companies are prohibited there; instead, companies must take the form of cooperatives established by a certain number of associates who also double as the "company's" workers, therefore they would all receive dividends equally. The nation is also expecting the arrival of foreign enterprises into the economy, though because many of them don't suit their economic model, they would only let in the select few that does.

Its infantry force alone has 90 million personnel, though I've yet to find a full estimate for the entirety of the Global Defense Initiative.
