Triumph - "Lay It On The Line"

Always good to see someone else listening to Triumph, they are one of the bands from the days when I started to actually listen to music, not just what they had on radio ☐

Kreator - Command of the Blade

Third and final song on this album where drummer sings. On first album he sang on five songs, on the next album he only sang on one. Been only drumming since then.

Interesting. In that case, my band would be Queen. Someone played "Bicycle Race" on their iPod and I thought that was hilarious so I looked it up and then I just got caught up in their songs. ☐

Other names from those days that I still listen to are KISS and Metallica. And Nightwish every now and then.

Kreator - Under the Guillotine

This band came into picture about three or four years later. And even that is 8 years ago ☐

Dio - Dream Evil

One of his best albums. The name also inspired this one Swedish heavy metal band who named themselves after this album and song.
