Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

I am politically fine with you, just like we used to. I don't think they all align, but hey, you will be hard-pressed to find someone who is 1-to-1 with each other in this world, eh? Everyone's unique and different! A man of political science means that you

Sometimes, some things are not trained with vigor and force, but are learnt. A benevolent robot has much of a soul as a benevolent person. Maybe you'll learn that one day. Hopefully. As for yourself, I see no reason to dislike you, or like you, to be honest. You seem to have a rather lukewarm military career, not a lot of bloodshed, so thank goodness for that. A family man, that I can probably say. Unfortunately, you are a pretty new face just like a few of you here, and this is where I will have to part ways with you for the time being. I personally am weirded out by your avocation for capital punishment, but hey, different upbringing and all that. I certainly have no intent to ill-treat you otherwise. But then again, it's madmen who change the world, and my God has he ever? You can't commend the man enough for what he's managed to get done during his tenure; curing cancer? Ending malnutrition? Raising the standard of living is hardly that impressive considering everything else he's achieved. I'm sure that the two of us will never quite agree when it comes to politics... "President Wiker and the new National Republic is a danger to the forces of civility order across the world. But fear not, there is a simple cure, which has been tried and tested in history. For France, they were called the 'Garde nationale'. In Spain, the 'Falange'. Our own, the 'Freikorps'. What do all these counters of socialism have in common? Their motivation; for the love of thy nation. The answer to the Iron Brigades and the nation they embody today is nationalism, and all nationalists should arm themselves to contain international socialism. Democracy is a stepping stone for radicals like Wiker. Don't give Wiker and his radicals a foot, lest they take a mile."
