Mavado - Me And My Dogs

Damn, forgot how good Mavado was.

Rishloo-Romance of a Dead Kingdom

Lots of 'em in Game of Thrones...

And to the people who won't shut up about these guys sounding exactly like Tool, WHERE THE HELL DO YOU GET THAT? And the vocalist barely sounds anything like Maynard.

Oh, but despite saying that, this album does have a Tool vibe to it. Probably the most out of their albums. But it still doesn't sound like "OMG TOOL RIP OFF!" like people keep somehow seeing in Karnivool and Rishloo. Karnivool even makes less sense.

Mavado - Sadness

*"Remember when we use to smoke together
Sit and chat about life and run joke together
Even though you were my father*

*We stick together as a friend or even as a bredda, yeah
But now yu gone, Jah Jah know
It hurts me deep inside Jah Jah know
Jah Jah know, only Jah Jah know"*

Mavado - Born And Raised

"I was born and raised

In the ghetto for years and years

No food for days and days

My people cry tears and tears

No one feels our pain..."

I like this album better than I remember. I was going into it expecting to rate it a 7.5, because I remember not liking it as much as the others. Still not their best, but probably will still go with an 8.
