The Free Port of Cristina is a sovereign city-state, country and a microstate. The country is a free economic zone where companies are taxed very lightly to encourage economic activity.

Really? Those two parties have notably different, perhaps even opposing, ideologies. Capitalist is laissez-faire and libertarian, while Welfare is Keynesian/welfarist and statist.

Any one of Labour, Greens, Progressives, and maybe Internet, although I'd have to research more about that last one's platform before I could make a decision. And, of course, independent candidates are always an option if I can find them agreeable.

Free Republican Union.

We do not use NS Stats, policies, or otherwise. Please only judge us by what is in our factbooks.

An alternate history version of China in which the alliance between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party never broke down, eventually resulting in a federalized, democratic China. Though one of the world's strongest economies and an emerging superpower, China continues to suffer from high rates of income inequality, an overreaching and sometimes corrupt government, and cultural issues that continue to persist despite the efforts of many reformers over the decades. Most factbooks are still an active WIP.
